GAVE THEIR LIVES IN DEFENSE OF THEIR COUNTRY

Sir Galahad Window

The Sir Galahad Panel in the Western Memorial Chapel was presented by Colonel R. L. Jackson. The Panel is dedicated to his nephews, Captain Rex K. Latham, Jr., Lieutenant A. J. Ellison, and Lieutenant James K. Latham, who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II.

The Panel is an idealistic treatment portraying Tennyson's mythical character—Sir Galahad. This version of the picture was reproduced in antique glass by Emil Frei Co. in St. Louis, Missouri.

The Senior Class of 1965 wishes to express its deepest appreciation to Mr. Gerald Chester L. Persing, who made this yearbook possible and kept the work running smooth.

Mr. Sidney Ashen-Brenner, S. Ashen-Brenner Studio, 4050 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri.

Without the gracious support of our advertisers, this annual could never have been printed. To these advertisers, the RECALL staff and the Senior Class of 1965 wish to express their profoundest thanks.

The Senior Class of 1965

One day each of you will regard your time spent at Western as the most rewarding experience of your life. Our best wishes go with you where ever you go. Good luck!

Olin

WE'RE GOING WITH YOU

Whether you knew it or not, almost every day of your school year you've used a product made by Olin Mathieson, or one that Olin Mathieson helped to make.

Once you're established in business or professional life, you'll probably hear a lot more about Olin Mathieson. A good many of you may have business with us, and a few of you may even come to work for us. There will be room because Olin Mathieson is growing. When Olin Industries, Inc., merged with the Mathieson Chemical Corporation in August, 1954, they brought together the skills, facilities and resources of two of the country's most rapidly expanding industrial organizations.

We extend our best wishes to you. May the future bring you all that you've hoped for and everything for which you've worked.

A FRIEND

The Indianapolis Boosters of Western Military Academy want to express their thanks to the school for the inspiration and discipline that is helping prepare the Indianapolis Cadets for further education and the challenges of manhood ahead.

As Western has started our sons on the road to successful lives, so we hope it will continue to help other boys from Indianapolis and from all over the Americas in the years to come.
